Early Education Area

A newly designed area for little ones! It is located near the stairwell in the Youth Services Department. The area has activities to encourage preschool-age children to use their imagination, improve eye-hand coordination, and make use of small motor skills.

Children have access to a wooden pyramid of play models, a circus train wall activity panel, and two preschool-size computers. Children can listen to interactive stories that read along with them/caregiver. Stories can be read to them in English or Spanish. Stellaluna, Arthur, and Little Critter stories are a few of the books on these special computers. There is also a movable mini book display with age-appropriate books, and some reading material for parents.

Visit the library booth to get the latest information about upcoming programs and find out how you can get a free library card," said Elena Lara, library representative.

This year's Presenting Sponsor is Consumer's Credit Union. For sponsorship opportunities, call (847) 201-1521. Healthcare providers and not-for-profit organizations are welcome!

Welcome to the Library Courtyard!

This summer the library will provide additional seating space in the courtyard. Bring along your favorite book and/or lunch and enjoy a variety of birds, butterflies and other wildlife that the garden attracts.

The National Wildlife Federation® (NWF) has certified the library's courtyard as an official Certified Wildlife Habitat™ site.

This site represents the personal commitment of library patrons and staff who have worked in the garden, with the leadership of Debbie Allen, Head of Youth Services.
